Section 6. The Minister of Education shall be acting under this Act.

Chapter 1
General

Section 7. The University is an educational and high professional institute whose objectives are to provide education, to promote academic and professional matters, to conduct educational research studies, to provide academic services and vocational know-how to society and to maintain art and culture and the environment and to create a body of knowledge that can be utilized for developing the country in a sustainable manner.

The University has a strong determination to be excellent in a variety of fields based on agriculture and to educate its graduates to be fully intellectual, skillfully practical, ethical, moral and responsible to society and the country.

Section 8. To achieve the objectives in Section 7, the University is required to take into consideration the followings:

(1) Equal opportunity in education.
(2) Academic freedom while having acceptable educational standards and quality along with ethics and morality.
(3) The dissemination of knowledge to society.
(4) Transparency and accuracy, as well as accountability and responsibility to the state and society.
(5) Effectiveness and efficiency of administration and management.
(6) Participatory administration of work-executors in the University.

Section 9. The University may be divided into the following departments:

(1) University Council Office.
(2) Office of the University.
(3) Office of the Campus.
(4) Faculty.
(5) College.
(6) Institution.
(7) Office.

The University may set up other departments under different names which are equivalent to a faculty, a college, an institution or an office as its department to undertake the objectives mentioned in section 7.

Section 10. To set up, to combine, and to close down any University departments as referred to in Section 9, a notification of the University shall be made and announced in the Government Gazette. In the case of setting up and combining any University departments, prescribing the status, roles and duties of such departments shall be required.

To divide departments internally as mentioned in Section 9 shall be regulated per the rules of the University.

To undertake the tasks as in paragraphs 1 and 2 above, the University shall take into consideration the educational quality, the worthiness of budget expenditures, a reduction of redundancy, and most importantly improved management effectiveness.

Section 11. Under the objectives stated in Section 7, the University may create any higher education colleges or other institutions as an affiliated institution and shall be empowered to confer a degree, a diploma, or a certificate of any classes upon a graduate from such an affiliated institution.

To accept or to terminate an affiliation of such higher educational colleges or other institutions as in paragraph 1, a notification of the University shall be made and announced in the Government Gazette.

Monitoring of higher education colleges or other institutions affiliated with the University shall be subject to the University’s provisions.

Section 12. Under the objectives stated in Section 7, the University may manage the education system and undertake research studies jointly with other higher education colleges or other research institutions in the country or abroad, or international organizations, by which the University has power of education management to confer a degree, a diploma, or a certificate of any classes jointly with such higher education colleges, institutes or research institutes upon a graduate.

To manage education or to terminate education management as in paragraph 1, a notification of the University shall be made and announced in the Government Gazette.

Undertakings such as in paragraph 1, shall comply with the University’s provisions.

Section 13. The University’s operation shall not be under the laws of labor protection and labor relations but the University employees shall be guaranteed protection and benefits, which shall not be less than those regulated by the laws of labor protection.

Section 14. The University has power and duties in doing things as per the objectives referred to in Section 7. Such power and duties include:

The University Council shall arrange an assessment of the overall performance of the President, Deans, Institute Directors, Office Directors and Directors of other departments under different names which have a status equivalent to the institutes or offices, in conformity with the criteria, procedures and duration timing prescribed in the University’s regulations.

Section 52. The President shall arrange an assessment of the overall performance of University Personnel in conformity with the criteria, procedures and duration timing prescribed in the University’s regulations.

Chapter 4

Accounting and Auditing

Section 53. The University shall prepare and maintain a proper accounting system, organized by departments of the University, in accordance with the principle of good internal control, with bookkeeping organizing items in the different categories of assets, liabilities, capital, income, and expenditure as actually incurred, together with statements showing the sources of such items, and there shall be internal auditing on a regular basis.

The recording of items in books and accounts as specified in the first paragraph must comply with generally acceptable accounting standards.

Section 54. The University shall prepare financial budgets, and accounts receivable and payable for submission to the University’s Auditor within ninety days from the end of each accounting period.
The beginning and ending dates of the University’s accounting period shall be subject to the University’s notification.

Section 55. The Office of the Auditor General of Thailand or any third party appointed by the University Council by consent of the Office of the Auditor General of Thailand shall be the University’s Auditor and shall audit and verify all categories of accounts and financial budgets of the University for every accounting period.

Section 56. The Auditor shall have the power to examine all of the University’s relevant accounting books and documentary evidence. For this purpose, the Auditor shall have the power to question the President and work–executors in the University, and additionally to call for the submission of all of the University’s relevant accounting books, and documentary evidence as additionally required, if necessary.

Section 57. The Auditor shall prepare an auditor’s report and submit it to the University Council within one hundred fifty days from the end of the accounting period for the University Council to present it to the Minister.

The University shall publish an annual report for the year ended, presenting an audited balance sheet, accounts and statements of income, and the University’s overall operation in the past year, as well as plans to be executed in the following year, within one hundred eighty days from the end of the accounting period.

Section 58. The President shall be the holder of a high-ranking position pursuant to the law supplementary to the constitution on corruption prevention and suppression.

Chapter 5
Direction and Supervision

Section 59. The Minister shall have the power and duty to direct and oversee the University’s activities in general in order to ensure their compliance with the University’s objectives under Section 7 and in conformity with the government policy or the Cabinet’s resolutions specifically related to the University.

In the case that there is any conflict in the University’s operation which may cause damage to the public, the Minister shall propose it for the Cabinet’s consideration. When the Cabinet decision is finalized with whatever outcome, those parties involved shall be required to comply with the Cabinet’s decision.

Section 60. All matters that the University is required to propose to the Cabinet pursuant to this Act, shall be proposed by the Minister.

Chapter 6
Academic Ranks

Section 61. Regular lecturers of the University shall have the following academic ranks:
(1) Professor.
(2) Associate Professor.
(3) Assistant Professor.
(4) Lecturer.

A Professor will be graciously appointed by His Majesty the King, on the advice of the University Council.

The University Council may stipulate to have other designated academic ranks by publicizing them in the University’s notification and announcing them in the Government Gazette.

The qualifications, criteria, and procedure of appointment and removal of academic rank holders must comply with the University’s regulations.

Section 62. A Professor who has special knowledge, capabilities and expertise and is removed from office without any offence may be appointed by the University Council as a Professor Emeritus/Emerita in the field in which such Professor has the expertise as an honorable rank.

The qualifications, criteria, and procedure of appointment and removal of a Professor Emeritus/Emerita must comply with the University’s regulations.

Section 63. An Adjunct Professor will be graciously appointed by His Majesty the King on the advice of the University Council, from among persons who are not work-executors in the University.

The qualifications, criteria, and procedure of appointment and removal of an Adjunct Professor must comply with the University’s regulations.

Section 64. The University Council may appoint persons having appropriate qualifications and who are not work-executors in the University as Adjunct Associate Professors or Adjunct Assistant Professors on the advice of the Academic Council.

The President may appoint persons having appropriate qualifications and who are not regular lecturers of the University as Adjunct Lecturers on the advice of the Dean.

The qualifications, criteria, and procedure of appointment and removal of Adjunct Associate Professors, Adjunct Assistant Professors and Adjunct Lecturers must comply with the University’s regulations.

Section 65. Any persons graciously appointed by His Majesty the King to be Professor, Adjunct Professor, or appointed as Professor Emeritus/Emerita, Associate Professor, Adjunct Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, or Adjunct Assistant Professor pursuant to this Act shall be entitled to use such academic ranks as permanent title to exhibit academic status.

Titles to be used in front of the names as referred to in the first paragraph shall have the following abbreviations:
(1) Professor abbreviated Prof.
(2) Professor Emeritus/Emerita abbreviated Prof. (Em.)
(3) Adjunct Professor abbreviated Prof. (Adj.)
(4) Associate Professor abbreviated Assoc. Prof.
(5) Adjunct Associate Professor abbreviated Assoc. Prof. (Adj.)
(6) Assistant Professor abbreviated Asst. Prof.
(7) Adjunct Assistant Professor abbreviated Asst. Prof. (Adj.)

Titles and abbreviations to be used in front of the names for other designated academic ranks shall be subject to the University’s regulations.

Chapter 7
Degrees and Marks for Academic Status

Section 66. There shall be three classes of degrees as follows:

The Doctoral Degree shall be called Doctor of Philosophy, abbreviated, Ph.D.

The Master’s Degree shall be called Master, abbreviated, M.

The Bachelor’s Degree shall be called Bachelor, abbreviated, B.

Section 67. The University shall have the power to confer degrees, diplomas, or certificates of any classes, for courses of studies in the University, and jointly confer degrees, diplomas, or certificates in any classes, for courses of studies which are jointly provided for studying with other higher education institutes, institutes, or research institutes in the country or overseas, or of international organizations.

Determining which courses will have degrees, diplomas, or certificates in which classes, and how the abbreviations for such courses should be written, must comply with the University’s notification and be announced in the Government Gazette.

Section 68. The University Council may issue regulations specifying that a graduate of a bachelor’s degree will receive a first class honors bachelor’s degree or a second class honors bachelor’s degree.

Section 69. The University Council may issue regulations specifying the classes of certificate and diploma as follows:

(1) Higher Graduate Diplomas are conferred to the graduates of any one field of study, after having been conferred a master’s degree or its equivalent.

(2) Graduate Diplomas are conferred to the graduates of any one field of study, after having been conferred a bachelor’s degree or its equivalent.

(3) Diplomas are conferred to the graduates of any one field of study, before being conferred a bachelor’s degree.

(4) Other certificates are conferred to the graduates of a specific course.
Section 70. The University shall have the power to confer Honorary Degrees to those whom the University’s council deems highly qualified, moral, virtuous, and deserving such degrees, but such degrees shall not be conferred to lecturers who hold offices in the University, the Chairperson of the University Council or Members of University Council while they are holding such offices.

The classes, fields of degrees, and criteria to confer Honorary Degrees must comply with the University’s regulations.

Section 71. The University may prescribe academic status gowns or academic status pins as marks representing the academic status of the conferees of degrees, diplomas, or certificates in any classes, and may prescribe official gowns for the Chairperson of the University Council, official gowns for the Members of the University Council, official gowns for the executives, or official gowns for the lecturers of the University.

The specifications of the designs, types, categories, and composition of the academic gowns, academic pins, and official gowns shall be regulated by the University’s notification and be announced in the Government Gazette.

The occasions when and conditions under which academic gowns, academic pins, and official gowns will be used, shall be subject to the University’s regulations.

Section 72. The University Council may define a seal, an emblem, or a logo of the University or the University’s departments, by issuing a notification of the University and announcing it in the Government Gazette.

The use of a seal, an emblem, or a logo under the first paragraph for commercial purposes or the use of such materials for purposes other than to the benefit of the University or the University’s departments must obtain prior written permission from the University.

Section 73. The University Council may define uniforms, marks, or student and work-executor attire in the University by prescribing University’s regulations and announcing them in the Government Gazette.

Chapter 8
Penalties

Section 74. Any persons using an academic gown, an academic pin, an official gown, a-uniforms, a mark, or student and work-executor attire, or anything that imitates such materials without the entitlement to use, or exhibiting by any means that one has a degree, a diploma, or a certificate, or holds any office in the University without the entitlement to do so, and if one has performed such conduct to make other persons believe that one has the entitlement to use or have such an academic position or office, then such a person shall be penalized by imprisonment for not more than six months, or a fine not exceeding fifty thousand Baht, or both imprisonment and fine.
Section 75. Any person displaying the following behavior shall be penalized by imprisonment for not more than one year, or a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand Baht, or both imprisonment and fine:

1. Making fake or imitated copies of a seal, an emblem, or a logo of the University or the University’s departments, made in whatever colors or by whatever means.

2. Using fake or imitated copies of a seal, an emblem, or a logo of the University or the University’s departments.

3. Using or making a seal, an emblem, or a logo of the University or the University’s departments appear on any materials or products in violation of the second paragraph of Section 72.

If an offender who is guilty of this violation as in Item (1) is also guilty of infringement as in Item (2), punishment shall be imposed for the offense of (2) only.

Offenses as in Item (3) may be settled out of court.

Transitory Provisions

Section 76. All affairs, assets, rights, liabilities, obligations, funds, and revenue of Maejo University pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539 shall be transferred to the University pursuant to this Act.

Section 77. The Chairperson of the University Council, the Deputy Chairperson of the University Council and the Members of the University Council pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539 holding a position prior to the effective date of this Act, shall continue to act as the Chairperson of the University Council, Deputy Chairperson of the University Council and Members of the University Council pursuant to this Act and perform their duties until there is a new University Council pursuant to this Act, the time of instauration of which shall not exceed a period of one year from the effective date of this Act.

Any committee or subcommittee being appointed by the University Council prior to the effective date of this Act, shall continue to perform their duties as assigned until the University Council resolves otherwise.

Section 78. The Chairperson of the Faculty Senate and Members of the Faculty Senate holding positions pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539 prior to the effective date of this Act, shall continue to act as the Chairperson of the Staff Council and Members of the Staff Council, not to exceed a period of one hundred eighty days from the effective date of this Act.

For the operation of the Staff Council as specified in the paragraph immediately above, the Chairperson of the Public Servant, Staff and Employee Council, pursuant to Maejo University’s regulations regarding the Public Servant, Staff and Employee Council B.E. 2553, shall also take part in the Staff Council’s affairs.

Section 79. The Chairperson and Members of the University Affairs Promotion Committee pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539 holding a position prior to the effective date of this Act, shall continue to act as the Chairperson and Members of University Affairs Promotion Committee pursuant to this Act and perform their duties until there is a new University Affairs Promotion Committee pursuant to this Act, the time of instauration of which shall not exceed a period of one year from the effective date of this Act.

Section 80. Any government bodies at Maejo University pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539, and internal departments that the University Council has approved and established in the University prior to the effective date of this Act shall remain as the University’s departments until there will be a notification of the University to establish departments pursuant to Section 10.

Section 81. The holder of the office of the President pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539, prior to the effective date of this Act shall continue to hold the office until the term expires.

The holders of the offices of the Vice Presidents and Assistants to the President pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539, prior to the effective date of this Act shall continue to hold their offices until the person holding the President position will be removed.

In the case that the persons holding the President, Vice Presidents and Assistants to the President positions are civil servants of the University, those persons shall declare their intent to change status from civil servants to University Staff pursuant to this Act by providing a written letter of intent within sixty days from the effective date of this Act. If upon completion of such a period, the persons holding those positions have not declared their intent to change their status from civil servants to University Staff, then these persons shall be removed from their positions.

Section 82. The holders of the offices of Faculty Deans, Office Directors and Heads of internal departments that the University Council has approved and established in the University prior to the effective date of this Act shall continue to hold the offices until the term expires.

The holders of the office of Deputy Deans and Assistants of the persons holding the positions as specified in the first paragraph shall continue to hold the offices until the persons holding the positions as specified in the first paragraph are removed.

In the case that the persons holding the positions as specified in the first paragraph are civil servants of the University, those persons shall declare their intent to change status from civil servants to University Staff pursuant to this Act by providing a written letter of intent within sixty days from the effective date of this Act. If upon completion of such a period, the persons holding those positions have not declared their intent to change their status from civil servants to University Staff, then these persons shall be removed from their positions.

Section 83. Offices held in the positions of President, Deans, Office Directors, or Directors of other departments under different names which have a status equivalent to institutes or offices pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539 shall be counted as terms of office for such holders pursuant to this Act.

Section 84. Members of the Faculty Committee, Office Committee, and Committee of internal departments that the University Council has approved and established in the University, and other committees appointed and selected pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539 and holding office prior to the effective date of this Act, shall continue to serve as members of those committees of those departments or perform duties as being appointed or selected, until new committees will be appointed or selected pursuant to this Act, no later than a period of one hundred eighty days from the effective date of this Act.

Section 85. The persons serving as Professor, Professor Emeritus/Emerita, Adjunct Professor, Associate Professor, Adjunct Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, Adjunct Assistant Professor and Lecturer of Maejo University pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539 prior to the effective date of this Act shall continue serving as Professor, Professor Emeritus/Emerita, Adjunct Professor, Associate Professor, Adjunct Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, Adjunct Assistant Professor and Lecturers pursuant to this Act.

The persons serving as Adjunct Lecturers of Maejo University pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539 prior to the effective date of this Act shall continue serving as Adjunct Lecturers of the University pursuant to this Act until their appointment term expires.

Section 86. Civil servants, employees of public sectors, government employees, University staff and University employees pursuant to Maejo University Act B.E. 2539 shall be reassigned as civil servants, employees of public sectors, government employees, University Staff and University employees pursuant to this Act.

For purposes of personnel administration of civil servants, employees of public sectors, and government employees as specified in the first paragraph, the University shall be deemed a government sector and those civil servants, employees of public sectors, and government employees shall receive a salary, wages, and other monies through the University by payment from a government budget, a personnel budget that is paid in the form of salary and regular wages and other relevant monies, and the laws regarding Civil Servants Regulations in Higher Education Institutions or the Ministry of Finance’s Regulations on Employees of Public Sectors or the Office of the Prime Minister’s Regulations on Government Employees, shall be enforceable, as the case may be.

In the case that the laws on Civil Servants Regulations in Higher Education Institutions or the Ministry of Finance’s Regulations on Employees of Public Sectors or the Office of the Prime Minister’s Regulations on Government Employees are applied but are not in line with this Act, or in the case that those regulations cannot be applied for any reason whatsoever, the execution of the part that is not in line with this Act or of the part that cannot be applied, shall be subject to the regulations as prescribed by the University Council.
Section 87. Any civil servants or employees of a government body under Section 86 who:

(1) Declare the intent to change their status and become University Staff or employees pursuant to this Act by providing a written notice within one year from the effective date of this Act, will be accepted by the University as University Staff or employees immediately, as the case may be.

(2) Declare the intent to change their status and become University Staff or employees pursuant to this Act, by providing a written notice after the period as specified in Item (1) but no later than five years from the effective date of this Act, will be accepted by the University as University Staff or employees without probation when the University has assessed and deemed that they have the knowledge and capability to meet the criteria prescribed by the University.

(3) Declare the intent to change their status and become University Staff or employees pursuant to this Act, by providing a written notice after the period as specified in Item (2), will be accepted by the University as University Staff or employees pursuant to the University’s regulations if the University deems that the acceptance of those persons will be beneficial to the University and there are positions available.

The declaration of intent under the first paragraph must comply with the University’s regulations, and once the intent is submitted, it may not be withdrawn.

The civil servants or employees of a government body under Section 86 who have not been appointed as University Staff or employees pursuant to this Act, shall continue to have their status as civil servants or employees of a government body in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Section 88. The persons who have been employed as University Staff or employees pursuant to Section 81, Section 82 and Section 87, shall receive salary, wages, welfare, and other benefits not less than the salary, wages, welfare and other benefits which they received before becoming University Staff or employees.

Section 89. Civil Servants who are employed as University Staff pursuant to Section 81, Section 82 and Section 87 shall be deemed as leaving the civil service because the government has dissolved or closed down the position pursuant to the law on Civil Servant Pensions or the law on the Government Pension Fund, as the case may be, from the date of being employed as University Staff.

Employees of a government body who have been accepted by the University as University Staff or employees pursuant to Section 87 shall be deemed as leaving government employment because the government has closed down the position, and shall have rights to receive compensation pursuant to the Ministry of Finance’s regulations on Employee Compensation.

Civil servants who are members of the Government Pension Fund shall be entitled to continue their membership after leaving government service, and, in such case, they shall be deemed retired civil servants and shall be entitled to receive benefits from the government body consistent with persons receiving a pension pursuant to the law on the Government Pension Fund.
University Staff who have received benefits as retired civil servants shall be exempted from the laws on social security, but they will not be deprived of their entitlement to voluntary self-insurance.

If any permanent employees of a government body who are members of the registered provident fund for employees of a government body, who have become University Staff and subscribed as members of the provident fund being established by the University, have transferred their contributions and other benefits from the registered provident fund for employees of government body to the provident fund being established by the University, their membership period may be continuously counted, provided that the criteria and conditions as prescribed in the University’s regulations shall be complied with.

Section 90. The entitlement to become Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor or enter into any other positions by civil servants or employees being transferred pursuant to Section 86 or having a change in status pursuant to Section 81, Section 82 and Section 87, and the entitlement to promotion for existing employees, shall not impede such transferring, changing status or not changing status as University Staff or employees.

Section 91. In case there are vacant positions of civil servants and employees of a government body in the University, whether before or after the effective date of this Act, those positions shall be terminated, and the positions and government budget for the positions, as well as the personnel budget with payment in the form of salary, regular wages and other related monies which are planned for those positions, shall be transferred to the University, and such transfer of budget shall be deemed a transfer of expenditure budget pursuant to the law on Budgeting Procedures.

Section 92. The regulations, rules or notifications shall be issued for complete implementation pursuant to this Act within two years from the effective date of this Act.

During the period that no rules, regulations or notifications under the first paragraph are issued for implementation, the Royal Decrees, regulations, rules and notifications being issued by virtue of Maejo University Act B.E. 2539 and being applicable prior to the effective date of this Act, shall apply, mutatis mutandis, as far as they do not contradict or conflict with this Act.

Countersigned by General Prayut Chan-o-cha
The Prime Minister
Remarks: The reason for the promulgation of this Act is that, as it is expedient to improve the tertiary education’s alignment with economic and social changes by promoting the state’s universities move towards becoming universities of the state which are not government agencies but merely under the direction of the state, have an independent administration and management and more liquidity, these universities be able to manage and provide tertiary education with improved quality and efficiency, and have academic excellence in accordance with the laws on national education; it is deemed expedient to improve the administration of Maejo University in conformity with such guidelines, and therefore it is necessary to enact this Act.
